Biographical Information: Daniel Benson Anderson was born circa 1873 in Wilmington, Delaware. On Anderson's death certificate his mother's name is unknown and his father, Daniel Anderson, were both identified as having British West African ancestry. The 1920 U.S. Census identified the birthplace of Anderson's mother as Liberia and his father's birthplace as Delaware. The birthplace of Daniel is listed with different places within the record, including Camden, New Jersey on his marriage certificate in 1907, Africa in the 1910 U.S. Census, and as Liberia (but as an American citizen) in the 1920 U.S. Census. On November 19, 1907, Daniel applied for a marriage certificate in Washington, D.C. and married Mina E. Harper (b. 1884) of Laurens, South Carolina, also known by Jemima, Jemina, Minera, or Mina. By 1910, Daniel and Jemima Anderson were lodgers living at 1519 P Street in Washington, D.C. The Andersons were literate. Daniel worked as a merchant in a dyeing establishment, while Jemima worked from home as a dress maker. By 1920, the Andersons were living in Alexandria, Virginia, where they owned a home outright and Daniel worked as a retail merchant in a grocery store. On January 9, 1928, at the age of 55, Daniel Anderson passed away of pulmonary tuberculosis, and had been suffering the past two weeks from complications caused by pulmonary edema, or fluid accumulation in the tissue and air spaces of the lungs. His last known address is listed as Arlington County, Virginia in the community of Hall's Hill and his death certificate states that his burial occurred in Hall's Hill, Virginia.

Biographical Information: Ida Atkins née Tyler was born on September 14, 1868 in Spotsylvania County, Virginia. Ida's father, Charles Tyler (b. 1840), and her mother, Judy A. Tyler (b. 1850), were both from Virginia. They were uneducated, and Charles worked as a laborer, while Judy managed the household taking care of their seven children. Ida consistently seemed to earn her keep through work, and by the time she was a teenager, she was working on a farm in Spotsylvania. At the age of 21, Ida gave birth to her son, Riley Atkins (b. 1889). A few years later, Ida married Robert M. Atkins (1861-1930) of Virginia (1893). In 1900, Robert Atkins worked as a day laborer. Unlike her parents, Ida and Robert received a basic education and were literate. For the next two decades, the Atkins rented 1641 Covington Street in Washington, D.C. In 1906, Ida gave birth to a daughter, Catherine, and she would have no more children. Robert and Ida were no longer living under the same roof, as Ida and Catherine were living with Ida's sister Phyllis Kemp and her family in Alexandria, Virginia by 1920. Ida contributed to the household working as a domestic servant.

On February 3, 1930, Robert passed away and was buried in Bethel Christian Church Cemetery in Spotsylvania County, Virginia. Ida, Phyllis, and Catherine were still living together in 1940, this time at 1901 North Cameron Street in Arlington County, Virginia in the Hall's Hill neighborhood. By this time Catherine was married and had three children: Gleivan (b. 1926); Alfred (b. 1928); and Florence (b. 1929). Ida was the only person employed in the household, which was valued at $3,000, and she worked 48 hours per week making $500 annually as a press operator at the West End Laundry. In June 1942, Ida

Biographical Information: Naomi Best was born in North Carolina on September 28, 1922. Originally from North Carolina, Naomi's parents were John Best (August 20, 1883-October 28, 1964) and Lola Thompson (July 20, 1889-December 15, 1968). Her parents were married on December 27, 1911. The parents of John Best were Dave and Julia Best, and Lola's parents were Jonaus and Bettie Thompson. While living in the town of Boon Hill, North Carolina, John worked as a general farmer. In 1930, the Best family and their four children moved to Arlington County, Virginia where they owned a house, valued at $2,400, in Hall's Hill at 328 East Falls Church Rural Route 1 (on present-day 22nd Street North). John made a living as a porter for a pub. When Naomi was a teenager, her family lived at 2223 North Culpeper Street, Arlington, Virginia. At the young age of 23, Naomi Best passed away on August 24, 1945, at Freedmen's Hospital in Washington, D.C. Her funeral was held at the John T. Rhines & Company Funeral Home at 3rd and Eye streets, Washington, D.C., Southwest. Reverend N. R. Richardson officiated the funeral and Naomi Best was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery.

Biographical Information: Charles Russell Brown, Jr., was born on January 4, 1915, in Arlington, Virginia. His parents were Charles R. Brown, Sr. (b. 1882) and Lillie (Lilly or Lilia) West (b. 1884). Married in 1906, Charles, Sr. and Lillie had three children: George (b. 1908); Edith A. (b. 1913); and Charles, Jr. The members of the Brown family were literate, but only the children received a formal education. Charles, Sr., worked as a clerk for the Department of the U.S. Navy, and his oldest son George worked as a messenger for the Federal Government. However, by 1940, Lillie was identified as the head of the household, which was valued at $3,000, on Nutley Street in Vienna, Virginia. Also residing with Lillie were her youngest children, Charles and Edith, and Edith's husband and their children. Charles, Jr. and his brother-in-law, Cortlow Hausborough, both worked at the Naval Hospital in Washington, D.C. On June 22, 1950, Charles, Jr., married Hazel Singleton (b. 1919) in Arlington, Virginia. Only a few years later in 1953, Charles R. Brown, Jr. passed away and was buried at Mt. Salvation Baptist Cemetery.

At the time of Alfred's death, he was not quite yet three months of age. His death certificate was signed by the coroner, E. J. Morton, who stated that Alfred was sick for a period of five days before dying on April 10, 1926. His cause of death was bilateral lobar pneumonia brought on by consolidation, suggesting he had tuberculosis. Alfred was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Church on April 13, 1926. Tragically, the Clay family had just buried their one-and-one-half year old son, Richard, three months before, and would have to bury another son, William, in November 1927.

Biographical Information:

Mary Ellen or “Ellen” B. Davis née Lightfoot was born in 1864 in Madison County, Virginia. Her parents were Walker and Jane Lightfoot, both from Virginia. Walker worked as a janitor and a sexton, and he could read but not write. Jane worked as a market huckster and was not literate. In 1900, Mary Ellen lived with her parents at 2415 Carrington Street in the Fairfield neighborhood of Richmond, Virginia. Her younger brother, Walter S. Lightfoot, and his family also shared a residence with Mary Ellen’s parents. Mary Ellen, Walter, and most of his family were literate.

Prior to 1910, Mary Ellen married James Davis of Virginia. James worked as a laborer at a grocery store and Mary Ellen did not have an occupation. They had two of their grandchildren (believed to be from a previous marriage of James), sixteen-year-old Douglas Lorbor and thirteen-year-old George Hylug, living with them in Hall’s Hill. Mary Ellen was a Tent Sister of the Purity Tent No. 184 of Hall’s Hill, which was part of the United Order of Tents. Formed in 1867 by two formerly enslaved women, the Order is a Christian Fraternal Benevolent Organization managed predominantly by African American women and is self-proclaimed as the oldest black women’s organization in the United States. Mary Ellen Davis passed away on November 17, 1919, from a cerebral hemorrhage after suffering from paralysis on one side of her body caused by possible heart attacks or strokes. There was a death announcement in The Evening Star from Nannie Gilliam (Leader) and Lucretia Lewis (Financial Secretary), of the United Order of Tents. The article stated that all members of the United Order of Tents of the J.R. Giddings and Jolifee Union were invited to join the Purity Tent No. 184 of Hall's Hill for Mary Ellen's funeral and burial at Mount Salvation Baptist Church and Cemetery. Her death was reported by her daughter, Catherine "Katie" Sophronia Spriggs of Hall's Hill.

Biographical Information: Fredrick Winston Ewell was born circa 1879 in Prince William County, Virginia. His parents (unknown) were born in Virginia. He had two sisters, Dorsey and Susie, and two brothers, John and Ernest. In 1900, Fredrick married Susie B. Lomax in her hometown of Fairfax. The Ewells had two children, Daisy Shepard née Ewell and Lillian Chinn née Ewell.

Census data shows the Ewell family was literate. Fredrick served as a volunteer firefighter with Arlington County Fire Station #8 in Hall's Hill, the first African American-operated fire station in the County. Around 1920 Fredrick worked as a stationary engineer for a heating plant in Washington, D.C. A decade later, Fredrick's profession was a self-employed coal and wood merchant. By 1930, the Ewell family owned their home on East Falls Church Rural Route 1 (on present-day 22nd Street North), which had a value of $2,500. They also had some expendable income, as they owned a radio. As a resident of Hall's Hill, Fredrick was very involved in competitive horseshoe throwing. He was Chairman of the Arlington County Negro horseshoe league, which was well-known for its talented horseshoe players. At the time of Fredrick's death, the Ewells lived at 2217 North Culpeper Street in Hall's Hill. Fredrick Ewell died at Freedmen's Hospital in Washington, D.C., on December 8, 1938.

Biographical Information: Rosa B. Jones née Nash was born in Ohio in 1877. She married Nathaniel Jones on April 6, 1896, in Washington, D.C. In 1910, Nathaniel and Rosa lived with their immediate family at 138 Q Street, NW, Washington, D.C. Their children were Eugene, Marion, Evelyn, Corinne, and Nathaniel. The elder Nathaniel worked as an insurance agent. Rosa was a Tent Sister of Purity Tent No. 184 of Hall's Hill, which was part of the United Order of Tents. Formed in 1867 by two formerly enslaved women, the Order is a Christian Fraternal Benevolent Organization managed predominately by African American women and is self-proclaimed as the oldest black women's organization in the United States.

Rosa Jones passed away in October 1919. On October 24, 1919, there was an announcement in the newspaper from Nannie Gilliam (Leader) and Lucretia Lewis (Financial Secretary), of the United Order of Tents concerning the passing of Rosa Jones. The article invited all members of the United Order of Tents of the J.R. Giddings and Joliffee Union to join Purity Tent No. 184 of Hall's Hill for Rosa's funeral at Mount Salvation Baptist Church and Cemetery. It is unknown when her husband Nathaniel died although he shares a grave marker with Rosa.

Biographical Information: Caruthus E. Lewis was born in 1900 in Connecticut. His parents were William E. (b. 1873) and Lucretia M. (b. 1872) Lewis and were both from Virginia. Caruthus had three brothers: Maurice (b. 1904), Ebert (b. 1906), and Lester (b. 1908). At the age of 19, Caruthus worked as a construction laborer. In 1939, Caruthus was part of a group of men that were arrested near the Smoot Sand & Gravel Company wharves at the foot of South Capitol Street in Washington, D.C. He was arrested for disorderly conduct during a truck driver strike. In 1940, Caruthus lived with his parents and brother, Maurice, at 2014 North Culpeper Street in Hall's Hill and worked as a truck driver for the Schroff Brothers. It is unknown when Caruthus Lewis died. He is related to present-day member of Mount Salvation Church, Portia Haskins, and former trustee, Eunice Carter. Biographical Information: Lucretia M. Lewis née Elliott was born July 1873. Her parents, both born in Virginia, were Nelson and Martha Elliott née Berry. Lucretia’s siblings were George (b. 1866), Eleanor (Elinore) “Ella” Chinn (b. February 1880), Katie (b. December 1882), Nelson, Jr. (b. June 1885), Lillian “Lillie” Glover (1887-1987), Mary “Mammie” Lewis (b. December 17, 1887), and Robert (b. February 1893).

Lucretia married William E. Lewis (b. 1873) on June 29, 1898, in Prince William County, Virginia. William’s parents were Mack and Maria Lewis of Virginia. William and Lucretia had at least five children: Caruthus E. (b. 1900), Ebert Chauncey (b. 1904), Lester (b. 1906), Maurice J. (b. 1908), and Corusha (birth year unknown). William worked in various service positions, including as a construction stationary engineer in 1920 and as a fireman working on boilers in 1930. In 1930, Lucretia and William owned their home on Maple Avenue in Hall’s Hill (on present-day North Cameron Street), which was valued at $1,600. Lucretia did not have an occupation, but she had a four-year college degree and was the Financial Secretary for Purity Tent No. 184 of Hall’s Hill, which was part of the United Order of Tents.

¹ The headstone installed in 2020 lists Lucretia’s death date as “June 1953,” but her obituary in The Evening Star states that she died on August 6, 1953.

Mount Salvation Cemetery Survey – Lucretia M. Lewis

Formed in 1867 by two formerly enslaved women, the Order is a Christian Fraternal Benevolent Organization managed predominately by African American women.

The couple owned a different home by 1940 that was located at 2014 North Culpeper Street in Hall's Hill and valued at $2,000. By the time William and Lucretia were in their sixties and no longer employed, two of their sons lived with them and worked in service industry positions. It is unknown when William died. However, it is likely his death occurred before Lucretia's passing, as there is no mention of William in her obituary. On August 6, 1953, Lucretia passed away and her funeral and burial took place on August 10, 1953, at Mount Salvation Baptist Church.

Lucretia was the great-aunt of present-day Mt. Salvation Baptist Church parishioner, Portia Haskins, who told Historic Preservation Program staff in March 2020 that Lucretia's plot was the site of other family burials. According to Portia, stillborn infant Ted J. Carter was interred in Lucretia's plot in November 1959. Ted was Lucretia's great-grandson and the son of former church trustee Eunice Carter (daughter of Ebert Chauncey Lewis) and Walter Carter who live in South Carolina (in 2020). Portia also described that Lucretia's husband (William E. Lewis) was buried at a right-angle to the foot of Lucretia's grave and their child, Corusha Lewis, is buried alongside Lucretia.

Marker Notes: None

Biographical Information: Nellie (Lellie) Lewis née Spriggs was born circa 1878 in Washington, D.C. Her parents were Robert and Annie Spriggs née Pelham. There is a discrepancy with Nellie’s birth date in the historic record. Although her grave marker at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery has her birth date as 1878, the U.S. Census records from 1910 to 1940 list her birth date as 1881, 1882, and 1884. Lastly, the death certificate for a “Lellie” Lewis states her birth date as 1893.

Nellie married Jessie Lewis on an unknown date. In 1910, at the approximate age of 29, Nellie lived with and worked as a cook for Jules and Mary L. Demonet of 140 18th Street, NW in Washington, D.C. Nellie was identified in the 1910 U.S. Census as a widow with three children. While Nellie did not have a formal education, she was able to read and write. According to the 1910 and 1920 censuses, she worked as a servant for a private family and lived with the Williams family in Washington, D.C. By 1940, Nellie continued to work as a maid in a private home and lived with Hylinda Bowles (b. 1900), at 2117 North Dinwiddie Street in Arlington, which was valued at $1,000. On February 10, 1947, Nellie Lewis died of pneumonia. She was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery. This branch of the Lewis family is related to present-day member of Mount Salvation Baptist Church, Portia Haskins, and former members, Eunice and Tammy Carter.

Biographical Information: Howard Nathen Moten was born in Loudon County, Virginia, on either October 4, 1877 (according to his WWII registration card) or 1880 (as stated on his death certificate) to Eliza and Frank Moten. His siblings included Frank, Levi, and George Moten. Howard had a 7th grade education and his death certificate stated that he was a bricklayer; however, his WWII registration card recorded Howard as unemployed. Howard married Rosy (Rosie) E. Moten née Spriggs and they had at least six children who lived into adulthood: Beatrice, Gilbert, John H., Fred W., Matilda, and Dorothy Marshall née Moten. In 1940, Howard lived at 2116 North Culpeper Street in Hall's Hill with his wife, their 7-year-old grandson John (parents unknown), his daughter Dorothy Marshall née Moten, and her son Donal Marshall. In 1947, Howard and his brother George were listed as privates on the roster of Fire Station 8 in Hall's Hill, and his son John H. was listed as an officer. Howard Moten died on December 6, 1956, from a cerebral hemorrhage due to hypertension and his death certificate indicates that he was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery.

The couple also had one son, Raymond, who died at the age of 18. Edward worked as a laborer at a D.C. paper mill in 1918 and was still working as a laborer at the time of his death. Edward Pelham died in Arlington on May 5, 1934, of heart failure and cirrhosis of the liver. His funeral was held at Ridgely and Hicks' Funeral Home in Washington, D.C. He was survived by his wife. Edward's death certificate only gives Hall's Hill as his place of burial. However, he was not buried at Calloway Methodist Church, based on research done by Arlington County's Historic Preservation Program to designate that cemetery as a Local Historic District. Also, his wife Lillie's death certificate specifies that she was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery in 1939. It is likely that she and Edward would be buried together at the same cemetery.

Biographical Information: Theron Leon Pelham was born around September 28, 1928, to William Pelham of Arlington, Virginia, and Frances Pelham née Moore of Washington, D.C. They had at least two other children: William, Jr. and Eunis. Theron Pelham was 1 year and 10 months old when he died of diarrhea and enteritis on July 28, 1930. He was attended by local doctor Edward Morton and then interred on July 30, 1930. Theron's death certificate only gives Hall's Hill as his place of burial. However, he was not buried at Calloway Methodist Church, based on research done by Arlington County's Historic Preservation Program to designate that cemetery as a Local Historic District. It is likely that Theron was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery with other members of the Pelham family.

Biographical Information: Annie Spriggs née Pelham likely was born circa May 1855 in Virginia. She married Robert Spriggs in 1874. In the 1880 census, Annie and Robert lived in present-day Arlington County and reported four children. Annie's occupation was listed as keeping house while Robert was a laborer, and both reported that they were unable to read or write. In the 1900 census, the couple lived in Cherrydale (most likely Hall's Hill) and had at least 15 children: Samuel (b. 1874), Robert (b. 1877), Alberta (b. 1880), Willis (b. 1880), Nellie (b. 1878), Lavinia (b. 1883), Lizzie (b. 1885), James (b. 1887), Alonzo (b. 1889), Vernon (b. 1890), Elsa (b. 1892), Gertie (b. 1894), Eddie (b. 1896), Arlinzo (b. 1897), and Melvin (b. 1899). It is likely that not all their children survived into adulthood since Annie's obituary listed only 12 children as survivors. Annie Spriggs died on June 12, 1927, in Arlington County after suffering from an unspecified illness. In addition to her husband and 12 children, Annie was survived by one sister, three brothers, 27 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Annie is possibly related to current parishioner Conte Spriggs.

Biographical Information: Elsie Clara Spriggs née Williams was born in Virginia on November 6, 1890, to James A. Williams and Sarah Cook. Elsie married William (Willis) Henry Spriggs by 1920, at which time he worked as a laborer. Census records do not indicate a professional occupation for Elsie. The couple had eight children who survived into adulthood: Bessie Grayson (b. 1905), Elizabeth Johnson (b. 1906), Nathaniel (b. 1912), Sarah (b. 1915), Annie Weaver (b. 1917), Dorothy Jackson (b. 1920), Readie (b. 1922), and Thomas. (b. 1926) While William passed away on October 7, 1930, Elsie Spriggs died in Arlington on October 31, 1944, from pneumonia and heart disease. At the time of her death, Elsie owned her home at 1931 North Culpeper Street in Hall's Hill and it was valued at $2,000. Elsie's obituary specifies that she was buried at Mount Salvation on November 4, 1944 after her remains were on view at the John T. Rhines Funeral Home in Washington, DC. She was survived by her father, eight children, one sister, and two brothers. Elsie is probably the relative of current Mount Salvation Baptist Church parishioner, Conte Spriggs.

Biographical Information: Samuel Henry Spriggs was born in present-day Arlington County on December 6, 1875, the eldest son of Robert and Annie Spriggs née Pelham. In 1900, Samuel lived in the Hall's Hill neighborhood with his parents and worked as a bluestone quarry laborer. By 1920, Samuel owned his home in Arlington County, was married to Catherine (Katie) S. Spriggs (maiden name unknown), and was a skilled laborer working for the government (for which government is unclear). The couple adopted a daughter named Sarah Wilson, who first appeared within the household in the 1930 census. At this time, the family owned its home on present-day North Cameron Street in Hall's Hill, which was valued at $5,000. By 1940, they had moved to 4947 18th Street North, a house they owned valued at $2,000. They had two lodgers at this time, Charles Brown, age 59, and Addie Jackson, age 41. Samuel Spriggs died in Arlington County of cerebral thrombosis on January 21, 1963, at the age of 87. Samuel's obituary confirms that he was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery. He was survived by Catherine, Sarah, one sister, and five brothers. He is possibly related to current parishioner Conte Spriggs.

Biographical Information: This unnamed infant boy was less than one day old when he died. He was born in Hall's Hill in Arlington, Virginia, on January 6, 1925, to Katherine (Catherine) E. Wood and Vernon Clayton Spriggs. The infant was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery on January 8, 1925.

The baby's father, Vernon Spriggs, was born in Cherrydale (most likely Hall's Hill), present-day Arlington County on August 31, 1891 (parents unknown). Vernon married May Francis Spriggs (maiden name unknown) in 1909 and they divorced in 1919. Vernon lived at 1621 Connecticut Avenue, NW, in Washington, D.C., in 1917 and at 2010 North Dinwiddie Street in Arlington with his wife Katherine in 1942 (year of marriage unknown). Vernon Spriggs died in June 1973 and was buried at the National Memorial Park Cemetery in the City of Falls Church, Virginia.

The infant's mother, Katherine (or Catherine) E. Spriggs née Wood, was born in Charlottesville, Virginia, on March 15, 1900 to Spotts Wood and Charlotte Mayo. She lived at present-day 2010 North Dinwiddie Street in Arlington with her husband Vernon and a five-year-old daughter named Shirley Spriggs in 1930. Katherine Spriggs died on June 23, 1952, in Arlington and was buried at Oakwood Cemetery in Charlottesville.

Biographical Information: Estelle (Estel, Estella) Stanley née Jones was born on February 17, 1897, to parents John William Jones and Lucy Ann Jones née Payne, who lived in the Liberty District of Bedford County, Virginia. John worked as a farmer in 1900 and owned his own farm in Bedford County. Estelle had five older siblings when she was born: James R. (b.1890), William H. (b. 1892), Joseph (b. 1894), Moses (b. 1896), and Harry (b. 1897). Estelle had five additional younger siblings by 1910: Lizzie (b. 1900), Ella (b. 1902), John (b. 1905), Joshua (b. 1907), and Helen (b. 1910). Estelle married Floyd Stanley, who was originally from Florida, on November 25, 1926. Floyd owned his own trucking business and the couple rented a home at 1904 North Edison Street in Hall's Hill by 1940. Floyd died on February 9, 1941 of heart failure. At the time of her death on October 6, 1962, Estelle Stanley resided at 5124 19th Road North and worked as a housekeeper. She died from cerebral infarction and was survived by three sisters and two brothers. Estelle's death certificate indicates that she was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery.

Material: Slate

Condition: Good

Stone Location: Unknown

Inscription: HELEN / THOMPSON

Iconography: N/A

Ornamentation: Circle with dot in center at the top of marker; three vertical parallel lines run down the center of the tablet

Marker Notes: Marker found lying almost flat, covered with dirt and leaves. Uncertain if intended as an upright tablet or horizontal plaque. Similar design to a nearby unidentified marker at Mount Salvation and for Elizabeth Tenner's marker at Calloway Cemetery (although that marker is marble).

Biographical Information: Helen Thompson was born on August 25, 1913, likely the third child of Thomas and Lillian (Lidian) Thompson née Swinson (Levison). Helen's siblings listed in census data were: Clarence (b. 1909), Naomi (b. 1911), and Dorothy (b. 1916). Thomas was a farmer in 1910 and Lillian worked as a laborer. When Helen died of pertussis at nearly three years of age on July 4, 1916, the family likely owned their house in Hall's Hill at present-day 1830 North Cameron Street.

Stone Location: In-Situ

Inscription: Otis / Tinner / 1901 - 1938

Iconography: None

Ornamentation: Simple recessed border around perimeter of marker; relief design of grapes in the top center above the name

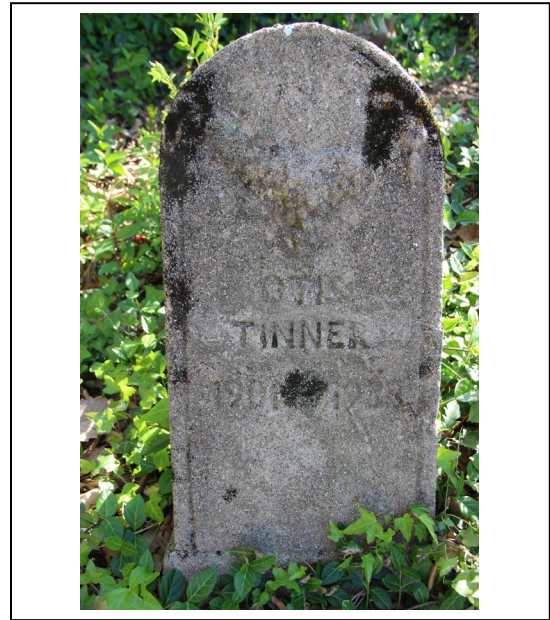

Marker Notes: None

Biographical Information: Otis (possibly William Otis) Tinner was born in 1901 to William and Elizabeth Tinner née Williams. In 1910 the Tinnors lived in Washington, D.C., although both of Otis's parents were born in Virginia. Otis had at least three siblings: Loretta (b. 1898), Lola (b. 1899), and Robert (birthdate unknown). Otis married Viola Garner in Washington, D.C., likely on October 31, 1921. In 1930, the couple lived at 929 27th Street Northwest in Washington, D.C. with their three children James (b. 1922), Thelma (b.1925), and Viola (b.1928). They also resided with Viola's mother, Clara Garner; Viola's brothers, William H. and Lawrence Garner; their nephew, Morris Page; and Viola's grandmother, Mary Dean. In the 1930 census, Clara Garner was listed as the head of the household in Washington, D.C., which was rented. At that time, Otis worked as a truck driver and Viola was a housekeeper. There is no record of Otis ever residing in Arlington County. Otis Tinner died in 1938 and was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery.

Biographical Information: Georgiana (Georgeanna, Georgina) Webster née Young was born on February 14, 1855, to Ella Young. The identity of her father is unknown. She married John W. Webster in 1870. Four of their children's names were recorded in the 1880 census: Willie (b. 1871), Allen (b. 1872), Jesse (b. 1876), and Mary (b. 1880). Georgiana maintained their home and John worked as a farmer first in Lee Township of Fairfax County and then in present-day Arlington County by 1900. That year Georgiana reported to the census that she had three living children and had given birth to seven children total. Georgiana and John's son Allen (Allan) Webster lived with them at this time with his wife, Millie, and their three children Edna, John, and Levi. In 1920, Georgiana and John lived with their son Allen and their granddaughter Sophie Webster. It is likely that Sophie was the mother of Erric Webster who also was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery. Georgiana Webster died in Arlington County of a heart condition on January 28, 1922 and was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery on February 2, 1922.

Biographical Information: Caroline Weeden (Weden) née Reed was born in 1874 in Washington, D.C., to John Reed. The identity of her mother is unknown. Caroline married Jefferson (Jeferson) Weeden, in Washington, D.C. most likely on August 7, 1901. In 1910, they lived on V Street in Precinct 8 in Washington, D.C., with their four children: Irene, Jefferson, Rochester, and Lawrence. At that time, Caroline worked as a laundress and Jefferson was a construction contractor. The Weedens moved to Hall's Hill in 1912 and purchased their home. By 1920, Jefferson had passed away and Caroline still lived with their children, which now included another son John. Irene, their eldest child, had married into the Spriggs family by this time, but still lived at her mother's house. Caroline Weeden died in Arlington on June 2, 1929, of a blood infection and was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery on June 5, 1929.

Biographical Information: Abraham Williams was born on October 1, 1885, in Loudon County, Virginia, to Henry and Adeline Williams née Robinson. By the age of 14, Abraham lived with the Clemnes family as their servant in Leesburg, Virginia. Abraham married Irene Day on November 6, 1907 in Loudoun County. In 1910, Abraham farmed his own property in Leesburg and the couple had a son named Elijah (b. 1908). By 1920, their family was still in Leesburg and included three more sons: Alvin (b. 1911), Curtis (b. 1915), and James (b. 1918) and they also had a boarder living with them by the name of Arthur Cross. According to the 1930 census, the Williams family had three more children that survived infancy: Dangerfield (b. 1922), Mervin (b. 1925), and Viola (b. 1928). The 1940 census indicated that Abraham and Irene had moved to Arlington, Virginia, with four of their children (Viola, Mervin, Dangerfield, and James); their daughter-in-law, Adell; and their niece, Irene Hughes. At that time, they rented a house at 2008 North Edison Street in Hall's Hill and Abraham worked as a janitor, then later as a gardener. Abraham Williams died on January 4, 1962, and was buried at Mount Salvation Baptist Cemetery. Abraham was the great grandfather of present-day parishioner and Mount Salvation Baptist Church trustee, Lawrence Williams, Jr.
