SCOTT MCGEARY

WHEREAS, Mr. Scott McGeary has served on the Arlington County Electoral Board for a total of 19 years, across terms from 1994-2003, 2011-2014, and 2016-2023, while consistently providing a professional and balanced perspective to the role; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGeary is a central figure in civic engagement in Arlington and across the metropolitan Washington region through his broad involvement in business and government endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGeary has brought expertise and insight to the business community through his notable engagement with the Arlington Chamber of Commerce (former Chair), Northern Virginia Chamber of Commerce, Loudoun Chamber of Commerce, Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, and Virginia Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGeary was inducted into the Arlington County Business Hall of Fame by the Arlington Chamber of Commerce in 2018 in recognition of his business acumen and leadership in the community; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGeary has played a pivotal leadership role at Washington Gas since 1999, and prior to that at the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGeary has proven outstanding versatility in his skills not only in the business arena, but in a wide range of civic engagement roles, through his service on the Arlington County Civic Federation (former Chair), Arlington Committee of 100, Board of Zoning Appeals, Arlington County Republican Committee (former Chair), and as Vice Rector at George Mason University;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Christian Dorsey, Chair of the County Board of Arlington County, Virginia, do hereby commend for his distinguished service and leadership on the Electoral Board and on public bodies throughout the region. On behalf of Arlington, we express our gratitude for his service and extend best wishes for enjoyment and fulfillment in his future endeavors.

Christian Dorsey
Chair
