Did you know that first day of camp registration is the busiest day for online registrations?

Make sure you get into the camps you want by preparing before the registration period begins. See page 66 for great registration tips!

REGISTRATION FEATURE

Our Summer Camp registration will include an online virtual waiting room to help manage the high volume of customers and to ensure it does not exceed the website's ability to provide a responsive system experience.

On registration day, log in to the site as usual—all users logged in will automatically enter a virtual waiting room where they will receive a random spot in line. You will keep your place in the waiting room line even if your phone goes to sleep, you lose your internet connection or you close the virtual waiting room page, provided you log back in on the same device using the same browser. Once it's your turn to register, you will be redirected to the registration site where you can browse the site and complete your transactions at your own speed!

Registration Dates & Times

Registration for Summer Camp will open to Arlington County Residents on a rolling basis, staggering enrollments by camp provider type. Registration on all days will be available both online and by phone (703.228.4747) and will begin at 12pm (Noon). The catalog is organized into sections based on the registration dates:

- Partner Camps
Registration will open Wed., Feb. 12 at Noon. See page 10.
- Parks & Rec Camps

- Community Camps manage their own registrations. See page 48.

Early Registration for those who qualify for Fee Reductions, begins Feb. 3 @ Noon.

Wishlist Feature

To best prepare for registration, our system enables you to add camp selections to a Wishlist that you can return to later. Any camp or class can be added, even if it is not currently available for registration. When you're ready to register, you can do so directly from your Wishlist. Please note—adding camps to your Wishlist will not secure your place in a camp, you still need to add camps to your cart from your Wishlist once registration opens. Learn more on to use the Wishlist feature here.

Pay in Full Now or Pay 50%!

When registering you will have the option to pay for your camp fees in full OR to pay 50% at time of registration and the remaining 50% by May 1st.

After selecting each camp, you will be prompted to select how you would like to pay. Please note, only core camp fees may be paid at the 50% rate. Extended hour fees must be paid in full at time of registration.

CAMP BASICS

Selecting the best camp for your camper doesn't have to be difficult. We have created a few tools to help you decide the best camp based on your camper's interests, the size of the camp, it's location and more! Use these tools as a reference when you review the camp guide.

What to consider when selecting your camp:

- 1 Ages of the Campers
- 2 Camper Interests
- 3 Location
- 4 Indoors or Outdoors
- 5 Overall Camp Size

Camp Size

- Less than 15 campers ▼15
- Less than 30 campers ▼30
- More than 75 campers ▲75

We recognize that camp size—that is, the number of campers per session—can be an important factor when deciding your camp. This year we've included a note at the end of camp descriptions if the number of campers is generally less than 15, less than 30, or over 75. Camps without this note will typically have between 30 and 75 campers per session.

Please note that program capacity for each camp may vary, and camp size notes are general categories. For example, a camp that has a maximum enrollment of 12 would be noted as Campers ▼15 (less than 15 campers).

Basketball & Sports Camp

One on One

This half day camp focuses on basketball and a variety of different sports. Campers will be put on teams and will play basketball and other fun games. Campers ▲75 5

Cupcake Wars 2.0

Tiny Chefs

Cupcakes have been the baked item of choice for several years now, and the Tiny Chefs' version of Cupcake Wars has been so popular we have had to create a "sequel" in order to introduce new recipes and competitions. In Cupcake Wars 2.0 we have gathered cupcake recipes that double as breakfast foods or drinks (what?!?), and that explore regional and international cuisines. On top of that we have included savory cupcakes! Don't worry, campers will still be competing in rotating small groups and learning decorating techniques. See *Disclaimer.

Stage Door: The Great Cell Phone Castastrophe

Encore Stage & Studio

This delightfully absurd play introduces some likable, goofy high school students who must live — briefly at least — without their omnipresent cell phones. Nerd Stevie is frustrated that Stella, the girl of his dreams and the leader of the Cool Kids, won't acknowledge him, so he devises a way to disable all the cell phones in town. With no phones, everyone must — gasp! — talk to one another. Utilizing projections, sound effects, and video, a hilarious adventure ensues! The Cool Kids try to solve the cell phone mystery, while Stevie and the other Nerds cluelessly try to prevent them from learning the truth. Along the way, they encounter wild animals at a suburban park, hostile squirrels, a trio of Fosse dancers, singing Puritans, touchy Beat poets, and a chicken on the lam. Camp concludes with two fully staged performances.

Stage Door: The Dumbest Play Ever

Encore Stage & Studio

Wow! This has to be the worst title ever for a play, right? Unless... maybe not? In a series of silly scenes that will have us laughing at the “dumbness” in everything, the real question in the end is about what matters most. Despite its name, this play smartly poses pertinent questions like: Is Artificial Intelligence smart or dumb? Is a tri-fork an amazing brainstorm or just another silly idea? And why are really good answers on a quiz show somehow wrong? Demonstrating that we can all see a bit of ourselves in this play, the opening scene has the playwright making fun of his own dumb ideas — this very play possibly being one of them! No one will walk away from this show without feeling both a little bit ‘dummer’ and a lot more smarter! Camp concludes with two fully staged performances.
