

ARLINGTON COUNTY RACIAL EQUITY NOFA

*A JOURNEY IN GOVERNMENT-COMMUNITY
PARTNERSHIP*

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH UNITED WAY OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL AREA

Background: The 2021-2022 Community Leaders Group

Who

- BIPOC* community leaders and representatives of community-based service providers
- Arlington County Government representatives
- External SMEs and facilitators, including UWNCA
- Funded by E Pluribus UNUM Fellowship

What

- A working group to center BIPOC community voices in making recommendations for changes to Arlington County's funding processes

Why

- To reform Arlington's human and community services funding by integrating BIPOC voices and lived experiences into the decision-making process, confronting challenges with "The Arlington Way," and co-creating impactful solutions with the community to produce measurable outcomes and reduce disparities
- The resulting funding process will be more transparent, more accessible, and more racially equitable

Challenges with "The Arlington Way" identified by participants in the 2021 Dialogues on Race and Equity and the 2021-2022 Community Leaders Group:

- Priority on relationships
- Lack of transparency and access
- Predetermined outcomes
- Historically disadvantaged BIPOC community members & organizations in favor of the "usual" voices

(*)BIPOC: Black, Indigenous, People of Color

An informative rubric:

- Is available as soon as the NOFA is released
- Uses a 1-4 Likert Scale
- Provides a checklist for applicants and reviewers
- Ensures all criteria are addressed in the proposal
- Demonstrates the level of narrative detail needed in the proposal for a higher or lower score
- Some sections will be more heavily weighted

Proposal Evaluation

All reviewers will receive the same training focused on process- and value-oriented topics.

Funding Awards

The post-evaluation process includes:

Recommendation

Award recommendations are made to County Board. The Board maintains discretion to fund high-scoring projects beyond the reviewer recommendations.

Decision

All County Board funding decisions are final and are not subject to review, appeal, or protest. Awards are posted online.

Feedback

Once awards are approved, all applicants may view their cumulative score and anonymized reviewer comments and feedback.

Support

All applicants may meet with County staff to receive additional feedback and guidance for future NOFAs.

Accountability

Reporting

- Written progress reports including relevant data and narrative
- Including site visits

Support

- Providing technical assistance
- Follow-up if grantees are facing challenges

Process Review

- Community engagement to understand their perception of process
- Reviewing efficacy at truly meeting needs of community
- Making adjustments to improve in subsequent years
