Summary

The initial Western Rosslyn Area Planning Study (WRAPS) Working Group meeting was held June 21, 2014. The purpose of the meeting was to orient Working Group members to the study process, listen to initial objectives for the study from several of the study area's property owners, and learn about preliminary site information during a walking tour.

Jay Fiset, County Board Chairman and liaison to the Working Group, and Steve Cole, Working Group Chair, started the meeting with opening comments. Richard Tucker, lead staff, presented an overview of the study including the scope, general site information, the County Board's Charge and Considerations, and the schedule.

Individually, Scott Prisco (Arlington Public Schools), Nina Janopaul (Arlington Partnership for Affordable Housing – APAH), Andrew McIntyre (Penzance), Captain Nathan Miller (Arlington County Fire Department), and Lida Aljabar (Arlington County Department of Parks & Recreation) briefly presented their desired outcomes for the study process and expressed the challenges and opportunities ahead for their respective properties.

After the walking tour, Working Group members provided initial comments and reactions to the information presented earlier during the meeting and also raised questions about the process and Charge. Participants from the audience were also asked to comment. All were asked to respond to a Participant Survey.
